Condition: Good. While some players are introduced to the game initially because their parents are fans of the sport or grew up playing it themselves, others come to the sport more randomly. Basic checkmates and tactics will be studied. Family connections and the sterling Percy brought from The Sayings of Lord Byron allowed a comfortable existence for a time, but the move was a disaster. After a very mixed bag of stories so far, the final three entries manage to avoid adding another duffer to the total, and a couple of them are pretty good.
