A person-in-context relational view of emergent motivation, self and identity. Just look at how many martial arts studios there are now - Asians can be lead actors in major international movies and become box office hits. This, of course, posed a challenge to ethics and law in that a notion of culpability and responsibility based around the intuitive belief one could have acted otherwise was no longer tenable. A youthful masturbatory scene that one thinks might be queasily amusing turns in another, far more substantive direction. The naturalist can no longer deny his dual nature as he struggles with the terrifying question: Could he be the murderous beast that committed the latest murders.
