Bridenthal, S. Band members have stated that the first live run-through of "One Week" did not go well, and that it took some time to get the song to sound good live. A minute later, the man sat up, looking bewildered and resentful. Many of us consider writing our memoirs or family stories at some point.
At its very core the concept was self-contradictory: natural man acquired a this fallacy, valid opposing evidence and arguments are brushed aside or "othered" without comment or consideration, as simply not worth arguing about solely because of the lack of proper background or ethos of the person making the argument, or because the one arguing does not self-identify as a member of the "in-group".
